Call Out for Writers

Short Attention Span Theatre are looking for 10-minute plays for their shows in April 2025 at the Ayr Gaiety and subsequent tour of Ayrshire community venues.

Details

Deadline

- Monday 13th January 2025

Submit To

- info@shortattentionspantheatre.co.uk

Theme

- The theme is Pop Princesses. Interpret this however you like.

Formatting

- Scripts should be submitted in Microsoft Word or PDF formats only.
- Scripts will be read anonymously. Please ensure your script, including the file title, does not mention your name or email address.
- Please list the characters at the beginning of the script.
- Please don't forget page numbers.

Cast

- Scripts should be for no more than three actors.
- Plays will be performed by actors in our creative pool who may not match the specified casting in your script.

Set

- Sets, costumes, SFX and props should be minimal.

Rehearsals

- Rehearsals will take place in Glasgow.
- Ideally, writers should be able to attend rehearsals. This isn't crucial, and there will be at least one rehearsal over Zoom, but new writers will benefit more from being involved in the rehearsal process.

Performances

- There will be 11 performances in total - six at the Gaiety Theatre in Ayr and five at community venues around Ayrshire, which have yet to be confirmed.

Payment

- Payment is by profit share.

Additional

- The shows will be for a family-friendly audience; scripts should reflect this.
- Scripts should tell a complete story and not be an extract.
- Please include a short bio detailing your writing experience in a separate document.
- Writers can be from anywhere.
- Scripts are accepted from writers at any stage of their career.
- If you have any questions, you can contact us at:
